

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Throughout February, the PACE Inclusion & Diversity team will be hosting events to promote and inform about African American issues, history, and culture through email and bulletin boards around the office. Topics will include:

- HBCUs (Historically Black Colleges and Universities)
- Historically Black DC Neighborhoods
- Heart Disease and the African American Community
- Local African American museums and attractions

PACE I&D upcoming events

AFRICAN AMERICAN CIVIL WAR MUSEUM VISIT

Thursday, Feb. 16 @ 4pm

Explore the African American Civil War museum that commemorates and tells the stories of African American soldiers in the Civil War.

EXEC SPOTLIGHT

Wednesday, Mar. 8 @ 12pm-1pm

Our exec spotlight will be discussing her journey as a woman of color throughout college and into the workforce of becoming a Managing Director at Accenture.

DC AAERG upcoming events

HBCU WEBINAR

Tuesday, Jan. 31 @ 12pm-1pm

Learn about HBCU networking, mentorships, volunteer opportunities, and more..

PANEL DISCUSSION

Tuesday, Feb. 7 @ 6pm

We will discuss key issues and questions about our ever-changing society with local leaders.

MLK CONCERT

Sunday, Feb. 19 @ 7pm

Celebrate Marking Luther King, Jr. with the "Living the Dream...Singing the Dream" concert at the Kennedy Center.